

2025 Fees & Payment Schedule

UEE31020 Certificate III in Fire Protection Control – Apprenticeship Pathway Government Subsidised for WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Eligibility for Government Subsidised Training

Fire Industry Training (FiT) is approved to deliver this training as an apprenticeship supported by Jobs and Skills WA funding.

To be eligible for a government subsidy, a person must be employed as an apprentice and the qualification registered with the Department of Training and Workforce Development as suitable for apprenticeship delivery.

For more information and to check eligibility for funded training refer to:

<https://www.jobsandskills.wa.gov.au/>

FiT will assist to determine eligibility prior to enrolment. Original documents will be required as evidence of identity and citizenship.

The fees presented below are for the current year. For apprentices who commenced in previous years, course fees can be provided upon request.

Course Fees

Course Fees are the actual contribution a student makes to the cost of their training, which may include fees for tuition, materials and amenities fees. Fees are calculated in accordance with the relevant funding authority requirements and will be advised to the apprentice prior to enrolment.

Fee Amounts

The following are typical fees based on a standard hourly rate per scheduled hour of enrolment and apply for training delivered with Western Australian and Commonwealth Government funding. Four payments per year settled prior to block training based on course hours will be charged.

Year	Tuition Fee per hour	Course hours	Fees Payable by Student	Queensland Government Contribution
1 st	$3.25	378	$1,228.50	$7,401.24*
2 nd	$3.25	321	$1,048.25	$6,285.18*
3 rd	$3.25	270	$877.50	$5,286.60*
			$3,149.25	$18,973.02

Average Government Contribution.*

If apprentice's academic progression falls outside of the normal three-year course structure, they will be provided with a personalised fee statement, prior to completion of the enrolment process.

Fee Exemptions

PARTIAL exemption - Eligible students will be charged 40% of the tuition fees where the participant falls into one of the following exemptions:

1. The participant holds a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card issued under Commonwealth law, or is the partner or a dependent of a person who holds a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card, and is named on the card.
2. The participant issues the PQS with an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the participant, his or her partner or the person of whom the participant is a dependent, is entitled to concessions under a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card.
